Were not attained by sudden flight,
But they while their companions slept
Were toiling upward in the night.

Asst. Prin. W. G. Ledbetter

Please let me congratulate the staff members of this annual. They have done an exceedingly difficult piece of work very well indeed. All of us have reason to be grateful to them. Let me likewise express my best wishes to all students in Wa-Hi. The consistent high quality of the average individual in our student body has been the cause of the recognition given Wa-Hi among the high schools of the Northwest.

As a way of training in democratic living, nothing in this country ranks ahead of its good high schools. If all other groups in our land were as reasonable and unselfish as the young people pictured in this book, we would be free of many of our present national problems. The fact that the reins of government will soon be in the hands of the students now here gives every promise, as I see it, of good days ahead.

Cordially,

W. A. Lacey, Superintendent

The 1949-50 annual is documentary evidence of one of the most successful years in the history of the school. In the last student body assembly last year I suggested that, although the school had enjoyed a fine year, Wa-Hi could and should have even a better one this year. You have made this possible. In most of the activities in the school year a new "high" has been achieved through your efforts and accomplishments and those of the faculty. To the graduating Seniors may I say "well done." A few years hence you may well be proud of having had a part in building the "golden era" in the history of your school. To the underclassmen, a sincere wish that this era will be continued well into the future.

Arthur D. Jones

I am blessed as a newcomer to Wa-Hi, to inherit the responsibility of a school that is so well established. This year book will contain the many fine accomplishments of the school year 1949-50. I know, as the years go by, that you will often refer back to this successful year in your school life.

As students of Wa-Hi, you may well feel proud of not only the honors, but your general good citizenship as well.

It is especially gratifying to have had the contact and association with the class of 1950. My memories of you and your achievements will always remain. Continue the good work, and life will reward you amply.

Robert P. Klavano

The publication of the Royal Blue is one of the finest traditions at Wa-Hi. It contains a record of the accomplishments and achievements of the school year. With this annual, you can relive your high school days; through the pictures you can renew acquaintanceships. In this way the book will gain increasing value. I hope that you will look back on your high school days with pleasure and a feeling that the time spent was worthwhile preparation for later life.

To the Seniors I extend congratulations. It has been a pleasure to know and work with you.

A. S. B. Government

The 1949-1950 Student Government at Wa-Hi got under way with a good start by electing Dick Ivester as President, Duane Lanchester as Vice President, Carol Ann McLoughlin as Secretary, and Anita Steiner as Treasurer. Then with some careful planning, Dick chose his cabinet. He appointed as Chief Justice Gene Cherryholmes. Bob Brown was given the task of keeping the Shuffle Shop in control; Dick Hawkins became the man who saw to it that the assemblies ran all right; Bill Clayton became Stage Commissioner; Commissioner of Buildings and Grounds Dwight Morrison saw to it that order was maintained; Fire Chief Duane Weitz checked on the safety factors; while Jerry Jesseph worked on inter-school relations such as exchange assemblies. To boost publicity there was Priscilla Clem, and Pat Wiley was appointed Commissioner of Organization. Honorary members as usual were the presidents of the Boys' and Girls' Federations, Jim Casper and Marlene Oliver, Yell Queen Betty Pollard and Journal representatives, Shirley Gradwohl and Bob McGowen. Besides maintaining and promoting the business of their certain offices, the cabinet worked as a body in sponsoring the Homecoming parade and dance, of which Bob Morrison and Rose La Rae Lott were elected King and Queen. They worked also on some additions and corrections to the constitution, visited 8th graders, and presented a talent assembly.

The legislative assembly, under the direction of Duane Lanchester, was kept busy throughout the year by canvassing for Community Chest Drive, setting up budgets for the next year and passing bills.

The Student Government was run very smoothly this year, showing that students can work together in harmony.

The 1949-1950 Legislative Assembly, despite a slow start did an excellent job. The annual Community Chest canvass taken by Legislative Assembly members set an all time high. Among the legislation discussed were: the Devil's Den, Yell squad funds, assemblies, noon entertainment, and skiing. The officers would like to thank the students for electing such fine representatives and also thank the representatives for their splendid cooperation.

Both first and second semester Student Court members served as seven man police forces. The court policy was changed this year; instead of issuing demerits, most offenders were assigned to hall and cafeteria line duties. Demerits were issued only in cases involving smoking or contempt of court.

The first semester Court had a new offense box made by the shop classes. This was painted blue and placed in the doorway of Room 216. A new low in demerits issued during the semester was set with only three being awarded. The court started the ball rolling on the idea of having an official pin worn only by Justices and Chief Justices of the Court. This is a tiny skull and crossbones pin for all Justices and the same pin with a gavel attachment for all Chief Justices. The second semester Court met and tried cases as often as four times a week. It was found that the police who were put on duty were beginning to take their jobs more seriously this semester. The hall and cafeteria line duty seemed to be working out very well. In some cases students failed to carry out their sentences and were given two or three demerits plus the sentence over. Hall duties and such were checked by court members. Interest in court seemed to grow as the year progressed. The student body was far better than usual in turning in offenders.

Girls' Federation

Another year of activities and responsibilities has been carried on by Girls' Federation under the leadership of Marlene Oliver, president. Serving with Marlene were Nancy Nessel as vice president, Beverly Zier as secretary, and Lulu Mae Ault as treasurer.

There were several outstanding social events put on by the Girls' Fed. At the beginning of the year the Federation had a party for all transfer girls. The first frolic of the year was put on by both Boys' and Girls' Federations. This was for the benefit of the freshmen, intending to help them become more acquainted with the social life of high school.

The Senior Counseling which was started last year has proven very satisfactory again this year. Any senior girl who is on the honor roll is eligible for being a senior counselor. Each girl is assigned a certain number of freshmen girls whom they help and advise in adapting themselves to high school life. The Girls' Federation party is an annual event put on by the sophomore girls. Priscilla Clem, who was elected "Friendship Girl," was presented with a gift at the Federation party.

A project of Girls' Fed. this year was sponsoring the Cheyenne Mountain Dancers. All the dancers were of high school age and after their performance the cabinet members of both Boys' and Girls' Federations arranged for a social gathering together. On March 27 the senior girls and their mothers were entertained at the annual Senior Tea given by the junior girls. The Tri-State Conference, which was on April 21-22, was held in Sunnyside, to which the Federation sent President Marlene Oliver; Typical 20th Century Girl, Carol Ann McLoughlin; and two junior girls, Sonia Angell and Helen McAuslan; and its dean, Mrs. Houghton.

Thanks go to Cabinet, Council and all girls of Wa-Hi who worked a great deal in making this a very successful year. Special thanks go to our capable dean and adviser, Mrs. Houghton, who is responsible for such a profitable year.

Boys' Federation

The school year of 1949-1950 turned out to be a successful one for the Boys' Federation under the supervision of Mr. Ledbetter, Dean of Boys. In cooperation with the Girls' Federation, the Boys' Federation helped present the first frolic of the year to welcome the incoming Freshmen and new transfers to Wa-Hi and later provided a tour of the school for the eighth graders in the spring.

An assembly was held for the boys each month. There were many types of entertainment, including Whitman's String Swing and Senior Octet, a basketball game between the faculty and the homeroom all-stars, and a ventriloquism act.

The Federation also sponsored a public performance of Schontell's magic show held in the Wa-Hi auditorium.

During the year, the boys offered their assistance by showing transfers and visitors around the school and grounds.

A perpetual display of hobby crafts in the trophy case was the result of a survey taken in the home rooms to find out the boys' hobbies and talents. These interesting displays were supplemented by articles in the Journal.

The carrying out of a successful intramural program is one of the major duties of the year of the Boys' Federation. This year's intramural manager, who is appointed by the Federation president, was Eddie Aliverti. His duties included planning schedules, posting results, taking care of equipment, and figuring out the winner in each sport. A trophy is presented by the Boys' Federation to the homeroom having the largest number of points at the end of the year.

Once more the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" fade away into the past and the Senior Class of '50 makes way for the future. What does the future hold for us? Hardship or happiness? Well, whatever it may be, we've had fun in our years at Wa-Hi. Yes, four years we shall never forget.

First semester class officers were: Kenny Moss, President; Gabe Joseph, Vice President; Roger Cummings, Secretary; and Virginia Danielson, Treasurer. Kenny Moss was re-elected second semester Prexy, with Tom Posey, Vice President; Vernon Teal, Secretary; and Don Biersner, Treasurer.

Marilyn Plucker, a transfer from Touchet High School, is tops in the class with a four point grade average, but Eddie Aliverti and Nancy Gingerich take top honors as Valedictorian and Salutatorian, respectively.

Last semester there were 50 seniors on the Honor Roll, 7 of these were straight "A" students in the National Honor Society, which is led by President Jim Casper. Jim is also Boys' Federation President. Marlene Oliver heads the Girls' Federation.

The Senior Play, "The Night of January 16th," was presented early in the year. Beverly Marcy and Virginia Danielson shared leading female roles while Duane Lanchester and Hayward Tucker played leading male roles.

Last year the Carl Raymond Gray $100 Scholarship was won by Richard Young. But this year a girl by the name of Anita "Bake a cherry pie" Steiner won this honor. She will go to W.S.C. to study Home Economics. Anita also placed third in the girls most valuable student contest.

Juniors

This year's Junior Class has by no means been idle, under the guidance of Miss Falk and Mr. McGrath. The class was lead during the first semester by President Gene Le Page, Merle Goble—Vice President, Zoe Zachary—Secretary and Treasurer. Shirley Morton and Harriet Rader were Girls' Council Representatives, and Shirley Dorn was the Girls' Cabinet member.

During the second semester, Jerry Still was President and serving under him were Carol Zier—Vice President, Billy Gohlman — Secretary-Treasurer. Second semester Girls' Council members were Shirley Morton and Pat Atkinson. Representing Girls' Cabinet was Evelyn Miller, while LeRoy Deranleau represented the boys. The class presented a very successful Junior Prom, "April Showers." The lucky girl who reigned over the gala affair was Pat Winn.

The Juniors were certainly in the limelight when the all-school play was presented. Joyce McCarroll and Elmer Kralman played major rolls. A number of the class of '51 were represented in the Wags at the same time. Many of the properties, costumes, and the prompting were in the charge of Juniors. Another Junior, Mary Davis, played the lead in the Girls' Federation play. This showing of dramatic productions along with those Juniors in the music department shows that the Juniors are talented. Half of the Junior-Senior Octet are Juniors.

This year's Journal has Joanie Sherwood as its editor along with the many other Juniors contributing.

The Juniors have a place in Wa-Hi's government with Sonia Angell and Vernon Atwood serving as first semester justices. Gene Le Page and Suzanne Skubinna took over the second term.

In the Girls' Fed. Department, several Junior girls offered their services. At the end of the first semester, Junior girls took over as assistant cabinet heads. Sonia Angell and Helen McAuslan were Junior delegates to the Tri-State Conference in Sunnyside.

Representing Wa-Hi in the Speech department were two Junior girls who participated in the state speech contest, Joan Strange and Zoe Zachary.

Thirteen Juniors were tapped for N.H.S. and 58 were on the Honor Roll.

Gene Le Page was chosen to attend Evergreen Boys' State. Thus the Juniors end a successful year.

Sophomores

The Sophomore Class has succeeded in having a very busy calendar and a very successful year; one that will be remembered by all the 290 students of the class of '52.

This successful year was made possible by the faithful guidance of Miss Corn with the help of the class officers: President Ralph Stearns, Vice President Jack McAllister, Secretary-Treasurer Sally Maxon, first semester. Del Klicker, Ralph Stearns, and Dick Turner took over these jobs the second semester. Chosen for Girls' Cabinet first semester were Glenna Dunham and Phyllis Stoneman; Phyllis Ackerman and Glenna Dunham filled these positions the last semester. Representing the Sophomore Class in Girls' Cabinet first semester was Phyllis Ackerman while Sandra Eastman took over this job the last semester. Serving first semester on Student Court were Marlyn Plankenhorn and Dale Warren; second semester—June Frank and Billy Plucker.

Sally Maxon showed great emotions in her role in the all-school play, "The Late Christopher Bean." She also participated in the Girls' Federation play along with June Frank, Gloria Derbawka, and Phyllis Stoneman.

Sophomores were not lacking in the sports field; in fact, they have started their showing and will be the "nucleus" of our Wa-Hi teams in a few years. The "B" football and basketball teams have both been through an outstanding season.

The ever-popular Boys' Quartet, composed of Dean Lodmell, Louis Clayson, Ron Sawyer, and Dale Warren were booked up through Christmas. The Sophomores also have the right to boast of having two of the three soloists with the choir in the "Spring Concert," Louis Clayson and Dean Lodmell. The Sophomore Girls' Sextet has also made many appearances. It is composed of June Frank, Helen Meinhart, Joan McClane, Emma Jean Barrett, Bernadine Livengood, and Gloria Derbawka.

As you can see, the Sophomores have by no means been idle and are anxiously awaiting the duties ahead of them.

Freshmen

It seems that an unusual amount of talent has sprung up out of the dark halls of "freshman alley."

With Mr. Hanson as their adviser, the class of '53 elected Clayton Young as president, Marilyn Heumphreus as vice-president, and Marvin Dahl, secretary-treasurer. Representatives to Girls' Council were Becky Teal, Shari Corkrum, Pat Gerfen, and Stania Lott. Lora Lee Davison and Frances Blackman were members of Girls' Cabinet. Serving on Boys' Cabinet were Edwin Jaquins, Clyde Meek, Bill Penfield, and Bob Cox. Greg Cowan was appointed a member of Student Court. During the second semester, his place was filled by Lora Lee Davison.

In the line of music, the freshmen girls' sextet, made up of Shirley Kight, Jacqueline Struthers, Stania Lott, Lora Lee Davison, Pat Light, and Betty Ruth Bradley and the freshmen boys' quartet, made up of Robert Allen, Bob Brunton, Jack Brown, and Fred Santler, displayed their talent on various occasions.

The freshmen were represented in the all-school play, "The Late Christopher Bean," by Shirley Brown who was chosen as the female lead.

The freshmen boys, who had their own teams of football, basketball, and baseball, gained valuable experience for future B squad and varsity work. Lead by Bob Cox as captain of the football team and Don Hartwig as captain of the basketball team they had a very successful season.

Some freshmen appearing in assemblies were Sharon Forrey, Barbara Burden, Grace and Dale Carlisle, Ellen Franzen, and Barbara Ferris.

The freshmen, too, have had their share of scholastic honors with forty-five members on the first semester honor roll. Anne Whipple, who received straight "A's" also had the honor of being the only freshman on the "Personality Poll" when she was awarded the title of "brains" for the girls.

Royal Blue

"Where's the razor blade?" "Did you cut the faculty?" "Don't tell me you bled that page!" —No, there's never a dull moment on the Annual Staff.

Carol Ann McLoughlin and Shirley Stewart, co-editors, and Miss Ruth Gray, adviser, started off the year by selecting Barbara Berry and Lillian Messer to be picture editor and business manager, respectively. As the staff is divided into three divisions, Carol Ann edited the copy while Shirley did make-up; the photography was taken care off by several of the staff members, but Tom Marrs, Ray Seitz, and Harold Weber did the majority of the work. To assist in the three fields were seniors—Carole Ann Seeley, Mary Jay Herbert, Priscilla Clem and Don Mason; juniors—Beverly Reynolds, Chet Young, Ray Seitz, Tom Marrs, Marie Tyrrell, Pat Munsey and Pete Welk; sophomores—Ruthie McLean, Jo Ann Reynolds, Nancygayl Welch, Harold Weber and Wanda Moss; freshmen—Marilyn Golden and Arnie Barer.

After the staff was organized, work was commenced on drawing up the book, selecting the type and cover. Of course, in the meanwhile, an extensive sales campaign was under way and the results were that engraving would be possible this year in place of lithographing.

One of the highlights of the year was an unexpected trip to Seattle. Editors Carol Ann McLoughlin and Shirley Stewart, Business Manager Lillian Messer, and Miss Ruth Gray, Adviser, were all privileged to attend the first annual Year Book Conference sponsored by the University of Washington. The group returned with more than a handful of ideas and plenty of enthusiasm for the year.

In addition to working on the year book, the Royal Blue staff had numerous other activities throughout the year: the annual Royal Blue "Snow Ball" at which Beverly Zier was elected queen with Carol Ann McLoughlin and Pat McGee to attend her as princesses; Royal Blue sales booster assembly; shakers and pom-poms for the Homecoming were made.

However, the staff cannot claim all of the credit for the 1950 Royal Blue, for various clubs willingly donated time and money to further the production of the annual. Special thanks are extended to El Adrea for their benefit play and to Soromia for their assistance with the Snow Ball. Also, above all, the editors and staff want to thank their adviser, Miss Ruth Gray; it was due to her willingness, patience and efforts that the Royal Blue was produced.

Journal

With a very small staff under Miss Florence McGovern, adviser, the Wa-Hi Daily Journal began its eighth year of daily production and twenty-fourth year of continuous publication as the official publication of the students of Wa-Hi.

Because the staff was so limited the first semester, they voted to have an editorial board to replace the editor-in-chief. Elected to serve on this board were Joanie Sherwood, news representative; Bob McGowan, features; Shirley Gradwohl, business; and Gene Barrett, sports.

Reporters in the news department were Lela Livengood, Lola Livengood, Joan Strange, and Virginia Miller. The job of the news staff was to carry out the motto of the paper—"news while it's new," even though it meant lost noon hours.

To make a feature page interesting is always a challenge. Betty Carnell, George Pickard, and Sharon Rogers did feature writing.

The second semester brought welcome additions to the staff. Thirteen Journalism students were eligible to work on the JOURNAL. With such a group it was again possible to have an editor. Elected to staff offices were Joanie Sherwood, editor-in-chief; Associate Editor, Bob McGowan; News Editor, Joan Strange; Feature Editor, Betty Carnell; Business Manager, Shirley Gradwohl; Gene "Buzz" Barrett, Sports Editor; and Circulation, Mary Bergevin.

From the new group, the editors chose assistants. Feature assistant was Janet Franklin. On news was Suzanne Skubinna. Circulation assistant was Marilyn Overby. Copyreaders were Harriet Duckworth and Margaret Buerstatte.

Serving second semester as reporters were Shirley Mundell, Bob Thompson, Dick Fain, Anne Jeglin, Sally Maxon, Nancy McVay, Louise Herman, Gretchen Vollendorff, Phyllis Hoffman, Virginia Miller, Jeanette Jaussaud, Phyllis Ackerman, Marilyn Plucker, Georgia Dirks, and Hayward Tucker. Arnold Knopf was special F.F.A. Reporter throughout the year. The burden of news gathering was left up to this bevy of reporters.

Sports during the year were handled by Editor Buzz Barrett with Bob Thompson and Dick Fain assisting on minor sports.

With spring came the Pacific Slope School Press Clinic in Seattle, March 4 and 5. Suzanne Skubinna, Joanie Sherwood, Mary Bergevin, Margaret Buerstatte, and Miss McGovern were there for the conference. Highlight of the trip was a banquet at which Betty McDonald, author of "The Egg and I" spoke. Through several days of continuous rain, the JOURNAL staff members attended sessions aimed at improving high school newspapers.

The staff feels that special credit should go to their adviser, Miss McGovern, who was always on hand to help with the rewording of poor leads and better treatment of makeup. She never refused when they called for help.

Thanks also is due Mrs. Ruth McDonald and her mimeographing girls, Joan Reihl, Barbara Beaver, Antonia Dirks, Lorene Mobley, Mary Fausti, and Lynette Parker. Working first semester also were Gloria Walker, and Dolores Castoldi. It was their daily duty to type stencils, copy heads, and mimeograph the Journal.

Advanced Speech

Advanced Speech saw its biggest year of growth during '49-'50. Many changes and additions were made in both the program of activities and in facilities for these activities. Innovations were made which should prove particularly fruitful in the years to follow.

On the material side, the most important addition was a recording and broadcasting studio. The old dressing room on the left wing of the stage was enlarged and remodeled for this purpose. The room was soundproofed and furnished with a mixing panel purchased from KUJ, in addition to the turntables and other equipment which were obtained last year. This studio, together with new microphones, additional recordings, etc., made possible more and varied radio programming during the year.

Two carry-over programs—Wa-Hilites and the Stack of Hots—were broadcast weekly during the first semester. At the beginning of the second semester, with the influx of new students, two more weekly programs were added to the schedule.

Production Unlimited, a creative writing program, was initiated and carried out with the cooperation of the English Department. The program consisted of writing done by students in the English classes.

The second pogram was the Ag Show, broadcast over the Farm News every Saturday. Members of Advanced Speech handled the interviewing and recording for this program.

A further change was made when the Stack of Hots was discontinued and in its place a half-hour Workshop program was launched. The content of the program varied from dramatic presentations to panel discussions and recordings of special events.

Other activities of the course during the year included a panel discussion before the Chamber of Commerce and participation in the University of Washington Speech Festival at Seattle. Two Advanced Speech students earned "superior" ratings in the latter.

It was a big year in Advanced Speech, and one which set the stage for even bigger things in the future.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, under the advisership of Mr. Conrad Stoehr, conducted a busy and varied program throughout the school year. A float was entered in the Homecoming parade, new and improved constitution was adopted, a more democratic method of selecting new members was put into effect, and many other projects were begun. Among these were the securing of a roster to hold members' names and a new emblem to be used at N.H.S. assemblies and initiations.

First semester officers were: Jim Casper, pres.; Lulu May Ault, vice-pres.; Jerry Jesseph, treas.; and Pat Jones, sec.

At the end of the first quarter, thirteen seniors were tapped for membership in the N.H.S. At a candlelight ceremony these new members were formally initiated with Mr. Klavano and Dean Sonnenberg from Walla Walla College congratulating the initiates. A reception was held for all members, their parents, and guests following the ceremony.

The second semester saw Jim Casper re-elected as president; Janice Fehlberg, vice-pres.; Jim Richards, treas.; and Barbara Gould, sec.

At the second semester tapping of March 9, fourteen seniors and thirteen juniors were chosen as members. This was the first group of new members to be chosen by the new method. The total membership of the club was now fifty-three.

At the banquet for all N.H.S. members and their parents, the new members were initiated by the traditional and beautiful candlelight ceremony. An added attraction was the music furnished by the high school's double mixed quartet.

Thus ends our year with forty members graduating, leaving thirteen to form the nucleus of the 1950-1951 N.H.S. Our thanks are extended to all who helped make this year a success and our best wishes are extended to next year's members.

Instrumental

The BAND, under the direction of the new band director, Mr. Russell Larsen, participated in a great many things this past year. Not only did they provide entertainment at all home football and basketball games but also accompanied the football team to Clarkston and Seattle. Parades and military reviews were another part of their work. None could say that the Wa-Hi band didn't look snappy marching down the street in their blue and white uniforms. Also a new organization was formed to accompany them; this is now known as the Flag Twirlers. Those girls chosen were Mardice Demaray, Marlene Oliver, Beverly Zier, Nancy Nessel, Jackie Docktor and Phyliss Stoneman. These girls do not, however, take the place of majorettes; in that field we had two very outstanding girls, Shirley Gradwohl and Nancy Oye.

First Row: Berrey, Dean, Messer, Clayton, Dirks, Buckman, Golden.

The annual Winter Concert was another of their activities. This concert, presented February 16, featured Karl Schwartz, trombone soloist; Nancy Kirk, clarinet soloist; and Eddie Aliverti, Richard Hawk, and Harry Ames in the trumpet trio. Several small ensembles and soloists were also privileged to participate in the Eastern Oregon Music Contest held in LaGrande, April 21.

Officers in the band included Eddie Aliverti, student conductor; Ruth Dippel, band manager; Nancy Kirk, librarian; Elmer Kralman, president, and Dixie Allison, secretary.

The ORCHESTRA certainly wasn't idle this year either. The group consisted of approximately twenty-five students; and, believe me, they love playing for their director, Mr. Russell Larsen. According to them they have the best director in the state. Among their activities were the Spring Concert and entertaining at the All-School and Senior Plays.

Vocal

The Vocal Department again this year has accomplished a great deal under the direction of Miss Dorothy Griewe, head of the Vocal department. We are sorry to say, that after six years of teaching, Miss Griewe will not be with us this coming fall. She is leaving a superior group of 217 members consisting of four large groups and five small groups.

The singers were kept busy all year, first giving a Christmas Concert and later a Spring Concert. In the last two years, they have sung before a full capacity crowd, even turning people away at the Christmas program. They have sung at various conventions such as the State Convention of School Directors, Washington Retailers' Club Convention, and the District Rotary Convention.

Department

Last year the department made 105 performances, so you can see they are one of the popular forms of entertainment in Walla Walla.

There were seven people this year who had the honor of receiving their music pins. Five points are given per song and one must have at least 2000 points. The persons receiving pins were Rose La Rae Lott, Carol Jean Schmidt, Mary Fausti, Esther Baker, Pat McGee, Margaret Berry, and Louise Sarver.

We know that Miss Griewe has left a well-trained group, which will continue to present entertaining programs throughout the coming years.

This year the Wa-Hi vocal groups did exceedingly well; in fact they were so good that they were asked to make several outside appearances. The double mixed quartet made 18 appearances, the Junior-Senior Octet 22, while the Sophomore Sextet sang 21 times and the Sophomore Boys' Quartet 15 times.

The Freshman groups also had their share of performances even though these groups are new and not so experienced. In fact, Miss Griewe was kept so busy keeping track of and recording the schedules of the various groups that she might have well kept a full time secretary busy.

The students wish Mrs. Everds (Miss Griewe) a very happy married life and realize that Wa-Hi's loss will be Longview's gain.

R. O. T. C.

The R.O.T.C. Department at Wa-Hi this year began with changes in some of the military personnel. Major Joseph A. Shoemaker assumed command as PMS&T and Sgt. 1Cl. Everett M. Fielder was added as Administrative N.C.O. The remainder of the staff consists of Sergeants Donald J. Stacke and Alfred J. Fulton, instructors, and Sgt. 1Cl. Ronald M. Fleshman, Supply.

Due to the number of officers the Corps was formed into two (2) Battalions with a Battalion Staff and a Regimental Staff.

This past year saw the Girls' Sponsor Corps under Captain Marlene Oliver and the newly formed Boys' Drill Team participating in half time activities at the football and basketball games.

The Girls' and Boys' Rifle Teams have completed their firing and although results were not as high as in previous years, better results are anticipated for the coming year.

Preparations are now under-way for the annual Federal Inspection which will take place on May 2, 1950, and Playday, May 5, 1950.

The highlight of the year will be on May 26, 1950, at which time the annual Military Ball will be held.

The Military Department wishes to express its thanks to all members of the Corps and graduating Seniors who have made this year a success.

F. F. A.

The Walla Walla Chapter started the year off by receiving the Master Cahpter Award for being one of the outstanding chapters in the State of Washington. Duing the fall, Mike Schultheis, state vice-president, visited the chapter. He made the statement that it was one of the best he had seen.

Thirty-five members exhibited crops, poultry, or livestock at the Southeastern Washington Fair. The livestock judging team placed first there as well as at several other contests. The chapter had judging teams at breeding livestock contests, fat stock contests, and crop identification contests.

A float was entered in the Homecoming parade by the chapter. The Community Service committee went to the mountains to get Christmas trees and boughs for the vocal department's Christmas Concert.

In January the F.F.A. held its annual Barn Dance, with a large crowd in attendance. Marilyn Plucker was named F.F.A. Queen and Sweetheart at the affair.

This year, for the first time, the chapter put on its own radio program each Saturday. During National F.F.A. Week, displays were put up in downtown store windows and the officers made several special appearances.

Jerry Still entered the district F.F.A. Public Speaking Contest at Pullman and did very well with his talk entitled "Battles of the 'T' Bone." Jerry was the first Wa-Hi F.F.A. member to enter in several years.

Thirty new members received the degree of Greenhand this year. The second degree, that of Chapter Farmer, was received by twenty other members.

Several members took livestock to the Spokane Junior Livestock show in May. The chapter made a very good showing at Spokane. After the Spokane show, the chapter held its annual Parent and Son Banquet where awards for the year were passed out to various members.

For recreation during the winter months, the chapter formed a basketball team which played other chapters in the district. During the month of March, an F.F.A. basketball tournament was held in the Wa-Hi gym. During February, the F.F.A. and F.H.A. co-sponsored a roller-skating party; invited as guests were F.F.A. and F.H.A. members of Mac-Hi.

A delegate was sent by the chapter to the State F.F.A. convention in March, and the candidates from the chapter for the State Farmer degree also attended this event.

The chapter operates several co-operatives. First of all is the Grass Co-operative. It operates well over a hundred acres of grass each year. The machinery co-operative owns a complete line of farm implements. The chapter also has a flock of Hampshire sheep, a herd of Hampshire swine, and registered Hereford cattle.

The chapter has had a very busy year under the leadership of President Steve Rawlins. All of the members kept busy during the year fulfilling their motto, which is:

LEARNING TO DO
DOING TO LEARN
EARNING TO LIVE
LIVING TO SERVE

Senior Play

The Senior Class play, "The Night of January Sixteenth" by Hyn Rand, brought a new and different type of dramatic presentation to the Wa-Hi stage. The setting of the play was a district court in New York, where Karen Andre, played by Beverly Marcy, was on trial for the murder of her one-time employer, financial genius, Bjorn Faulkner.

At the start of the play a jury was secured from actual members of the audience, and these jurors watched the proceeding from their box on the stage. Their job was to listen to the testimony of the witnesses called from the audience by Prosecutor Flint (Duane Lanchester) and Defense Attorney Stephens (Hayward Tucker). At the close of the trial they retired to reach their decision.

An important innovation was made with this play. On the Monday night preceding its public performances it was taken to the Blue Mountain Sanitorium for a showing before the patients. The Monday night jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, and this proved to be an accurate forecast of future results, as not guilty verdicts were also brought in during both regular performances of the play.

The cast included Beverly Marcy as Karen Andre, Hayward Tucker as Stephens, Duane Lanchester as Flint, Eddie Aliverti in the role of Larry Reagan, Virginia Danielson as Mrs. Faulkner, and Jerry Jesseph as her father, John Graham Whitfield. Dick Hunting played Sigurd Junquist, Gene Cherryholmes was Dr. Kirkland, Carol Ann McLoughlin was Mrs. Hutchins, Bob Morris was cast as Homer Herbert Van Fleet, Dick Hawkins played Elmer Sweeney, Jane Chandler was portrayed by Lee Ann Zaegel, Magda Svenson by Louise Herman, and Roberta Van Renselaer by Joan Smith. Bob McGowan was the judge, Paul Klingbeil the bailiff, Clarence Edinger the clerk, and Shirley Reinhart was the prison matron. The parts of the two secretaries were played by Marge Vincent and Marlene Oliver.

All School Play

All four classes were represented in this year's All-School play, "The Late Christopher Bean" by Sidney Howard. This was one of the most outstanding plays to be selected for a Wa-Hi production in recent years.

Following the precedent set by the Senior play, "Chris Bean" was performed before a highly responsive audience at the Blue Mountain Sanatorium on the Monday before its regular run.

The small cast (5 men, 4 women) made possible a variety of excellent roles. Included in the cast were Jerry Jesseph as Dr. Haggett, Shirley Brown as Abby, Beverly Marcy in the role of Mrs. Haggett, Sally Maxon and Joyce McCarroll as the Haggett girls, Ada and Susy, Elmer Kralman as Warren Creamer, Ken Moss in the part of Tallant, Eddie Aliverti as Rosen, and Bob McGowan as Maxwell Davenport.

The play was presented without any serious mishap, but there were some bad moments when Joyce McCarroll came down with laryngitis on the day of its second regular performance. Fortunately, she regained most of her voice by evening, and went on to do a very commendable job.

WALLA WALLA 19, PASCO 0

Taking the role of underdogs the Blue Devils traveled across the river to start the season with an upset win over the Pasco Bulldogs 19-0, thus pleasing the large body of Wa-Hi fans who had chartered a train for the game.

WALLA WALLA 33, WENATCHEE 0

The Wenatchee Panthers moved into town for the first home game of the season and met defeat at the hands of the under-rated Blue Devils 33-0. This game was marked by good blocking as Gene LePage completed his eighth straight pass of the season.

WALLA WALLA 14, YAKIMA 6

Fighting to retain possession of the Little Brown Jug, the gridiron boys from Wa-Hi downed Yakima 14-6 in what proved to be one of the toughest games of the season.

WALLA WALLA 28, MAC-HI 2

The Blue Devil line, gaining strength with each game, held the Pioneers to 91 yards from scrimmage, as the Mac-Hi boys met defeat, 28-2. Larry Morrison had an excellent night, kicking four out of four field goals.

WALLA WALLA 38, DAYTON 7

The reserves got plenty of experience in a marathon game with the Bulldogs from Dayton, holding them to a miserly 47 yards from scrimmage. The final score was 38-7.

WALLA WALLA 25, CLARKSTON 0

Clarkston's Bantams were the sixth straight victims of the strong Wa-Hi eleven. After being battered by the boys in Blue and White, they came out on the short end of a 25-0 score.

WALLA WALLA 54, PENDLETON 0

Surprising the Buckeroos in what proved to be the highest scoring contest of the season, the Blue Devils scored 54 points while the Pendleton boys couldn't cross the goal line for a single TD.

WALLA WALLA 26, EVERETT 6

Seven thousand fans turned out to watch the Blue Devils warm up for the Turkey Day game as they upset a big coast team 26-6. Wa-Hi's line was as good as a brick wall as they held Everett's Gulls to 95 yards from scrimmage.

WALLA WALLA 36, LEWISTON 0

Playing on a wet turf, the Wa-Hi boys downed the Gem State boys from Lewiston 36-0.

WALLA WALLA 7, LINCOLN (Seattle) 21

It was a dark, rainy Thanksgiving that greeted the Walla Walla gridiron team in Seattle last November. Thirteen thousand five hundred people jammed Memorial Stadium to watch the Metropolis Champs do battle with the Southeastern Washington powerhouse, Walla Walla.

Shortly after the opening kickoff, Lincoln had their first score. But the game Devils fought back to tie the game up 7-7 in the second quarter. Minutes before the half ended a Lynx back slid over the goal line to make the score 14-7. Wa-Hi could not get a score across the board in the last half while Lincoln made a Blue Devil fumble pay off, to make the final score 21-7.

The rooting section, townspeople and students, were cheering the Blue Devils as they left the field. Many thought to themselves, "Well, maybe next year?"

According to statistics, Larry Morrison booted 26 out of 34 conversions; while Bob Morrison held honors as far as touchdowns were concerned, making 10 during the season.

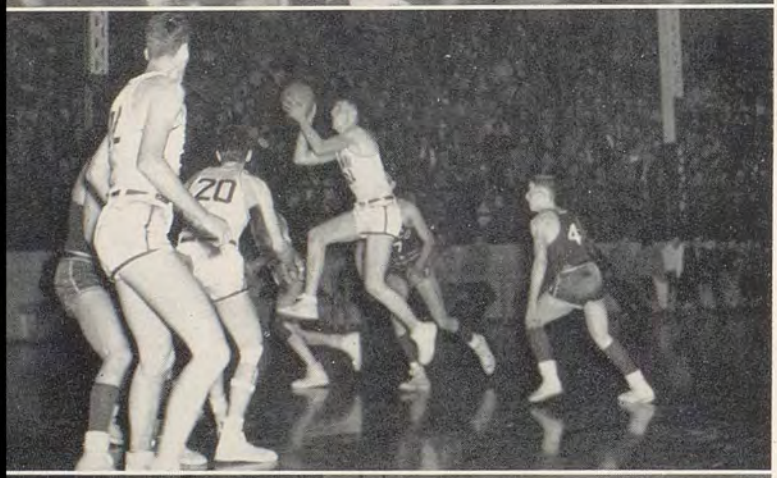
Blue Devils Go to



Starting out the season as favorites, Coach Wooten's fighting Blue Devils continued to keep their superior rating by knocking over every team they met.

After the second game of the season in which Yakima set back the Devils 37 to 48, the Wootenmen bounced back in their next game and trounced the "Pirates" 53 to 28, a 28-point margin. From then on it was easy sailing for the high scoring Blue Boys as they won their 23 games, many by 20 points or more.

After waltzing away with sub-district and district honors the Wa-Hi team entered the Seattle classic as heavy favorites which really put Mr. Wooten on the spot. After trouncing Toppenish in the first encounter 45 to 29, however, things didn't look too bad. Then Clarkston, a four time loser, caught fire and poured in points at an unbelievable percentage and sent the Devils into a thrilling overtime game.

In the next game, however, the Devils looked like themselves and defeated Hoquiam by a sizeable margin to qualify for the finals. In their last game Wa-Hi set back the strong North Central team from Spokane to take fourth place honors in the tournament.

State Tournament

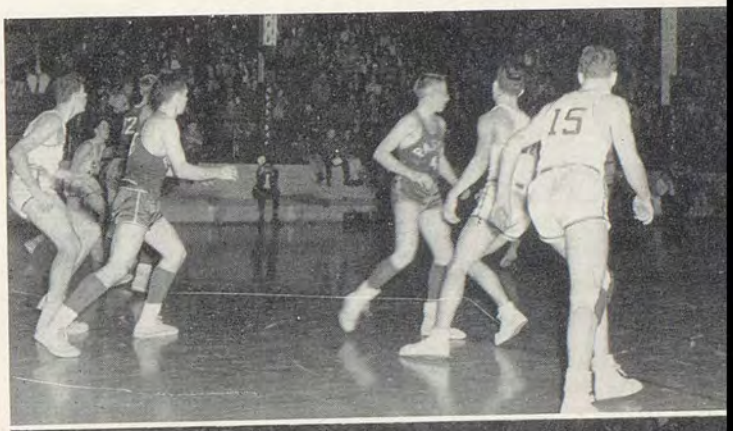
Big 6' 7" Captain Dwight Morrison was the high scorer for the team with a total of 383 points. Elected All State Forward in the state meet, Big Red was second only to Aberdeen's Tony Vastelica in tournament scoring.

Rich Mead, another 3 year regular, was second in team scoring and very accurately praised as one of the best guards in the state. Rich had one of his better nights at WSC when he scored 20 points against the College Frosh.

Larry Morrison, who didn't make his debut until the fifth game because of football injuries, proved to be the spark in the team. Being a very aggressive ball player, he found it difficult to remain in the game a full thirty-two minutes because of fouls.

Dick "Whimpie" Fain, smallest of the regulars, worked well with play-maker mate Rich Mead in setting up the offense.

Harlow Tucker, 6' 4" sophomore, playing his first year of varsity ball, was another main spring in the team play and a hard man to beat on the back boards. As Harlow is a cool ball player when the going gets rough, Coach Wooten will find plenty of use for him in the next two years.



Gordie Boyer, who spelled off Larry Morrison, proved to be a dead eye around the key and played good ball along with Duane Weitz, who was a rough man around the boards.

Wayne Heimbigner, Bill Davis, Bob Hammond, juniors, and Jack McAllister, sophomore, rounded out the second squad of teammen who will give Coach Wooten excellent material next year.

The team wished to express special thanks to Mrs. Wooten. It seems it was a vicious circle, with Coach Wooten trying to keep the boys in shape and then Mrs. Wooten would bake those irresistible chocolate marble cakes, and along with ice cream and a smorgasboard, (Annacortes Specialties), the boys would eat like they had never seen food before.

Rich Mead, who was always the first at the table and the last to leave, finally was filled to capacity when Mrs. Wooten gave him all the fruit salad and turkey he could hold, after the state tournament.

Boxing

Coached by Franklin (Pete) Hanson and Charles (Chuck) McBride, the Wa-Hi boxing team went through a most successful season. The team finished the year with three district champions. Lester (Zeke) West was the only man on the squad to go undefeated. Though they were defeated in early season matches, Larry Delaney, sophomore, and Roy Young, senior, walked away with district crowns, as did West.

As usual, the season started with the traditional All-School Smoker, followed by twelve interschool matches. The Blue Devils met large teams and small teams, but managed to come out on the winning side 8-4. Schools meeting Wa-Hi during the 1949-1950 season were: Clarkston, Pasco, Prosser, Colfax, Mead (Spokane), Hermiston, and Pomeroy.

High school ring pugilists everywhere donned the leather head gear, as did the Blue Devils—although the bulky headgear slowed the fights. Townspeople still swarmed to see the prep smokers.

District champs of '49, Bruce McKay, Paul Gleaton, and Steve Roeser, were beaten out in the finals of this year's title matches, but all three will be back next year. Lester West was the only district champion who repeated last year's performance. Wa-Hi had but three seniors on the squad. Max Hellberg, Roy Young, and Emil Nowoj.

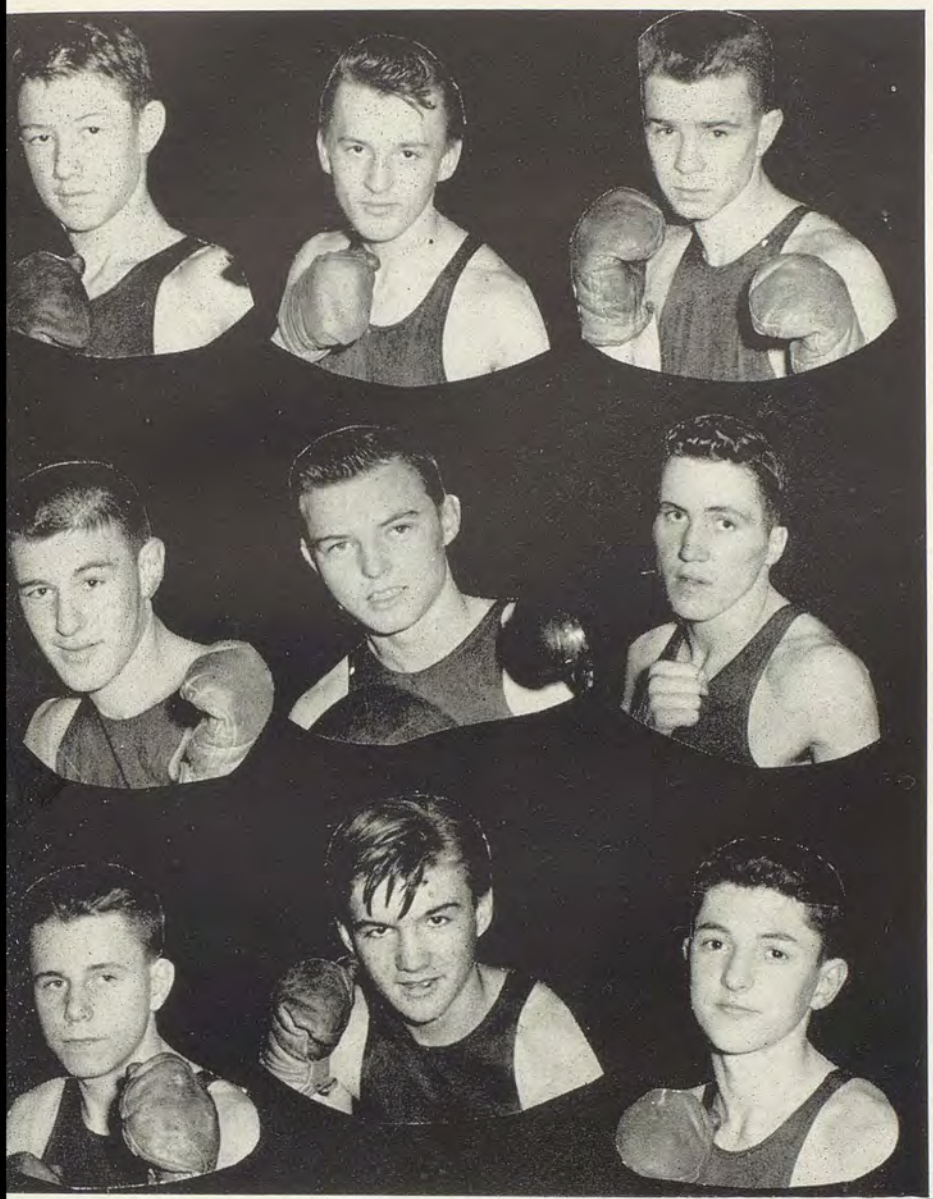
There will be many prospects up for next year's squad. These include Gene Myers, Larry Delaney, Al Best, Rich Nowoj, Dick Oelke, LeRoy Deranleau, Jim Fowler, Joe Thomas, Darrel Schmidt, Lester West, John Clark, Paul Gleaton, Bruce McKay, and Vern Mobley.



The senior manager was Alvis Lane, while Charles Patterson and John Miller were the junior managers.

Both Mr. Hanson and Mr. McBride received tickets of payment on clothes at Sporleder's Men's Shop.

The team finished second in the District Tournament at Colfax.

Lester West was elected captain by his team members and received the trophy that Bill Erdman of the 1948-49 season had won.

Baseball

Because of the State Basketball Tournament, the rain, the snow, and sickness, the Wa-Hi baseball team got off to a rather slow start this year, losing their first game of the season to the hard hitting Richland team. Then after a few practice games with Whitman, the Devils started rolling and couldn't be stopped.

Coach Wooten found himself unusually heeled with a club of big "stickers" from the outfielders right down to the pitcher.

Captain Roger Cummings, who played his third year at second for Coach Wooten, succeeded in doing a fine job keeping the team spirits high and the boys hustling all the time.

Gordon Boyer, who pitched fine ball through the season, was one of a fine staff of hurlers which included juniors Paul Gleaton, Gene LePage, and Senior Larry Morrison, who hit clean up, played the outfield, and shortstop when he wasn't covering the mound.

Come On! Hurry!

Dwight Morrison, lanky first baseman, was a life saver at first. The six foot seven "red head" really cut down on the usual amount of over-throws at first.

Russ McCormmach capably assisted Dwight at first. Sophomore Del Klicker, playing his second year as Devil third baseman, covered his bag like an age old veteran.

Dick Turner, another third sacker, did a fine job in spelling off Klicker.

Mert McGrew and Bob Stoneroad shared honors at shortstop, with both boys turning in creditable achievements.

Curtis Lang, junior backstop for the club, was too big a man for a chucker to miss behind the plate, and he looked even bigger with a bat in his hand.

Don Klein did a fine job helping Lange behind the plate.

Dick Fain, who took over centerfield in his junior year, hit lead-off most of the time, claiming he could reach first base more than anyone else.

Rich Mead, who started his high school baseball career as a sophomore, did everything but coach the team; he played first, second, third, caught, pitched, played the out-filed, and any other position where he was needed.

Roy Stearns, Dale Steindorf, Gale Davin, and Bob Spearman rounded out the outfield sharing honors with Boyer and Morrison when they weren't pitching.

Next year Coach "Boots" Wooten will just have to start from scracth when he loses his seniors, Rog Cummings, Rich Mead, Gordon Boyer, Larry and Dwight Morrison, and Dick Fain, all first string men.

Pitchers Paul Gleaton and Gene LePage, however, should give strength to the mound, and Del Klicker will be back for a couple of years to give the needed power to the right side of the diamond along with Mert McGrew at shortstop and Curtis Lange, back stop.

Managers "Jud" Kimball, Arden Forrey, and George Wagner will surely give Coach "Boots" Wooten their all next year in forming another great team.

Skiing

The Wa-Hi Ski Team, under the direction of Mr. Albert Haase, completed a very successful season. This year the Wa-Hi skiers entered four major Northwest high school meets.

The first meet saw the skiers journeying to Payette Lakes, Idaho. Here they entered a four-way Pacific Northwest Ski Meet. With Oregon, Idaho, and Washington entering to make much competition, Bob Brown and Miles Lodmell place in the first ten.

The main trip of the year was going to Canada. Here the team entered a four-way international high school meet. Skiers from Idaho, Montana, Washington, and many parts of Canada traveled to Rossland, B. C., for this big meet. There were 16 teams at this meet making a total of about 100 contestants. In this meet Wa-Hi did very well by taking 4th place. The team was beaten out of 3rd place by one point.

The third meet was at our home hill at Spout Springs, Oregon. Here the Wa-Hi slatmen took top honors by defeating Leavenworth, the next closest, by 30 points. Schools entering this meet were Yakima, John Rodgers and Lewis & Clark of Spokane, Leavenworth, and some Seattle schools.

The "B" squad traveled to Seattle for a practice meet with the schools of Seattle. Although they could not enter the meet, they still ranked high against the top skiers of Seattle.

The boys on the "A" squad included Miles Lodmell, Bob Brown, Tommy Rae Gardner, and Jack Haase. Those on the "B" squad are: Jack Brown, John Gardner, Don Beaver, and Doug Taylor and Dean Lodmell.

Since there wasn't any official state meet to find out just who has the best team, we cannot claim to be the state champs, but we have defeated more teams than any other team in the state.

The outlook for next year is good. There is one returning "A" squad man, while all the "B" squad men are returning.

Track

It was an able crew of cindermen with which Felix Fletcher and Chuck McBride started the '50 track season. There were veterans at nearly every position on the field and some with two and three experienced men doing the job. Bright spot on the track team is Duane Weitz, three year letterman in the shot put and discus.

Because the Annual is printed before the midway point in track season, scores of the remaining meets will not be published.

Veteran seniors seeing their last year of competition in high school athletics are: Bob Brown, hurdler; Jim Casper, two year letterman in the high jump; Ed Daugs, an 880 man; Bruce Hill, distance man; Miles Lodmell, veteran pole vaulter; Bob Morris, three year letterman in the sprints and 440 yard relay; Bob Morrison, three year letterman in the hurdles and weight events; Emil Nowoj, letterman in the broad jump; Vern Schacht, letterman in the 880; Larry Summers, veteran distance man; Bob Thompson, distance man; Neil Van Winkle, weight man; Duane Weitz, three year letterman in the weight events; Alan Cook, javelin thrower.

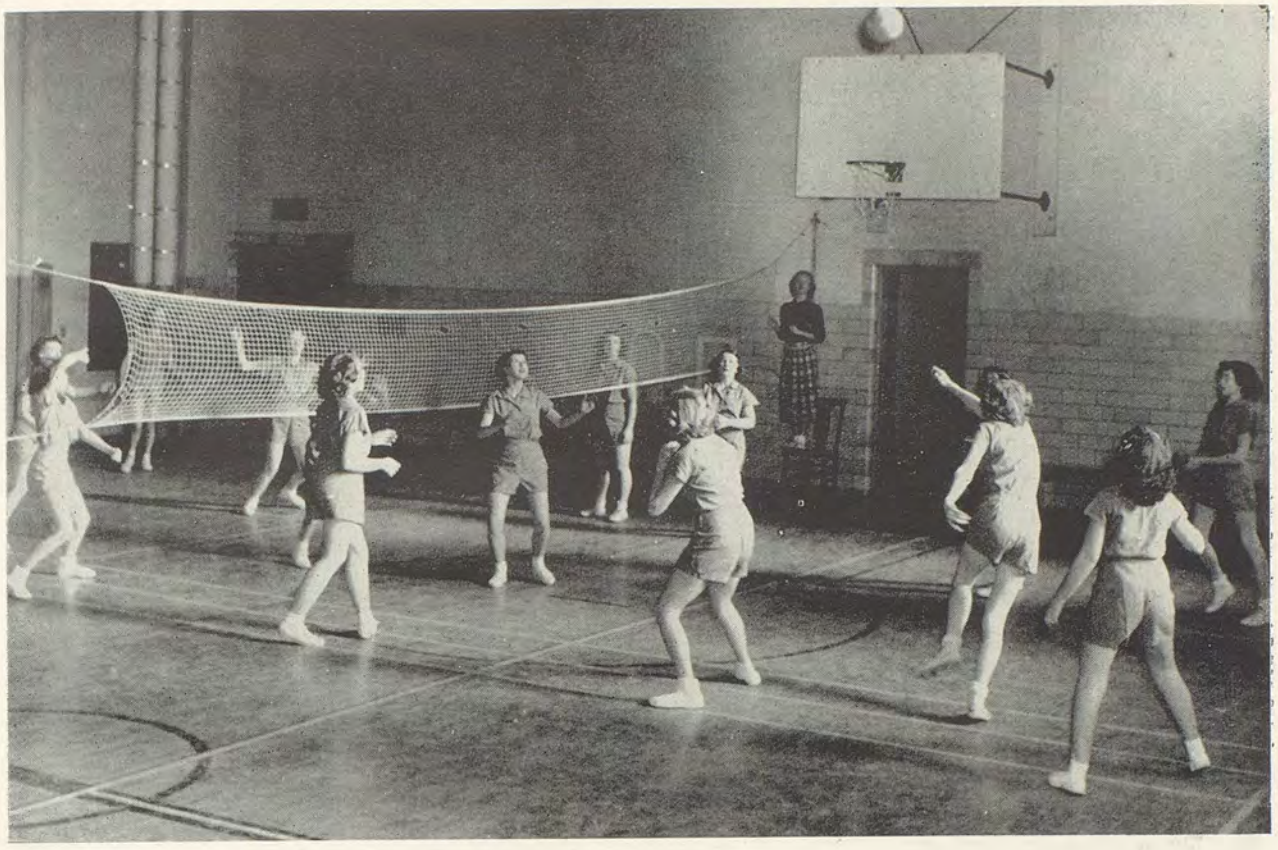
Reg Barr, Jerry Bernard, Marvin Cramer, Harold Collins, Bob Cox, Ken Darr, Jim Davis, Al Derby, Dean Derby, Merle Goble, Ed Gwinn, Rex Gwinn, Don Harwig, Harold Heiser, Dale Hopkins, Bill Huntley, Larry McCoy, Lester West, and Herb West are other Devil trackmen.

Jim Casper was injured in the Pendleton meet while Jimmie Davis and Zeke West were out part of the season with injuries.

Alan Cook, a senior who decided to try out for track this year, won the javelin event against Mac-Hi in the first meet of the year. Duane Weitz has swept the shotput and discus events so far this year. The relay team of H. West, Morris, D. Derby, and Zeke West has been improving rapidly over their first performance of the year.

Bob Cox, freshman, was developing into quite a quarter miler; he finished a half yard behind veteran Bob Morris in the last meet. Morris has been defeated but once this year. Mr. Fletcher tutors the sprinters and Mr. McBride masters the weight men. Managers are Jim Kerr, Gene Wike, and Phil Stinemates.

Thus far this year the Blue Devil cindermen defeated Mac-Hi and lost to Pendleton in dual meets, while finishing second in the WSC Invitational and getting but one first in the Mac-Hi Carnival of Speed.



Girls' Sports

The girls' intramural sports program provided activities for every interest this year. A speedball tournament, won by the sophomore team, was held in the fall; Shari Fain, freshman, won the table tennis championship. Other team sports with their winners were: Volleyball—315 and 104; basketball—315 and 101; and softball. Clara and Nina Huie battled it out for the badminton championship with Nina winning. The results of archery and tennis were not available but the tennis team had some good new material to supplement last year's regulars: Marilyn DeBoer, Frances Kajita, Wanda Moss, and Ann Patrick.

Regular physical education activities climaxed in the Physical Eucation Demonstration which was given before a capacity audience on February 21. Arta Binder was crowned Posture Queen, with Jo Anne Thurber and Shari Fain as her attendants.

Girls' Sports letters were awarded at the end of the first semester to Emma Jean Barrett, Marilyn DeBoer, Dolores Dicus, Dorothy Dipple, Lilly Huntley, and Diana Wilson while Lilly Huntley and Marilyn DeBoer qualified for a state letter. All girls who have earned 100 or more points in girls' sports are eligible to join the Girls' Athletic Association, which sponsored a very successful volleyball Play Day with St. Paul's girls as guests. Lea Ann Zaegel has been president and the following girls have been Sports' Managers: Speedball, Bernadine Livengood; Volleyball, Lola Riley; Basketball, Dorothy Dipple; Table Tennis, Emma Jean Barrett; Badminton, Frances Kajita; Tennis, Marilyn DeBoer; and Softball, Jean Hankla.

Miss Pfeiffer's home room has been the proud possessor of the Girls' Intramural Sports Plaque, awarded each May to the room which has earned the most points during the year.

Tumbling had the largest turnout yet, with Reva Carter assisting Mrs. Freeman with both the beginners and advanced groups. (Two programs were given.)

Yell Squad

Yell Queen Betty Pollard, King Bill Lloyd, June Cochran, and Russell Hyslop, had a very successful year in leading the school cheers during football and basketball seasons.

The uniforms were entirely new this year with the boys wearing blue sweaters, and the girls white sweaters wtih blue kolots.

Trips included one to Clarkston and another to Seattle for the Thanksgiving Day game to give the football team supporting cheers.

During the course of the year the yell squad introduced new yells and also pep yells accompanied by the band.

The organizing and assembling of the Homecoming parade is the main project of the yell squad. Another project worked on this year was friendship with the yell squads of other schools.

After George Wagner resigned, the cabinet, with the approval of the Yell Queen, gave the president permission to appoint Russell Hyslop to finish this year. He will continue as Yell King next year.

At the end of each year there is an opportunity for students to try out for a position on the yell squad and be elected then they automatically remain on the yell squad for two years. We hope June Cochran and Russell Hyslop, as king and Queen of '51 and '52, will have just as successful a year as King Bill and Queen Betty did.

Queen Beverly Zier reigned over the '49-'50 Royal Blue Ball. The dance, with "Snowball" as its theme, opened the winter season on December 4. Beverly, with her dark beauty and glistening crown, certainly made a glamorous queen. Her escort was Duane Weitz, All-State football tackle.

Queen Beverly's court consisted of Princesses Carol Ann McLoughlin and Pat McGee, who were presented with pretty wreathes of white chrysanthemums.

Homecoming Dance

This year Wa-Hi opened its social season with its annual Homecoming Dance. The events of the two days, November 10th and 11th included a festive parade, followed the next day by an exciting game between the Wa-Hi Blue Devils and the Lewiston Bengals with Wa-Hi winning. During the half time Queen Rose La Rae Lott, somewhat wet but happy, awarded the trophy for the best float to Dolores Fagg, president of El Adrea.

To climax the gala affairs, the A.S.B. cabinet presented its third annual Homecoming Dance over which King Bob Morrison and his Queen Rose La Rae Lott were chosen to rule.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Walker, supervisor, and Bob Brown, commissioner, the Shuffle Shop has had another very successful year for the teen-age crowd. Class representatives appointed by Bob to assist him in the proper functioning of the club were: Doris Proctor, senior; Pete Welk, junior; Carolyn Reed, sophomore; and Duane Bergevin, freshman. Wanda Moss, sophomore, was appointed for the second semester to take Carolyn's place.

With holiday decorations lending appropriate atmosphere, the teen-agers have enjoyed dancing, pool, cards, and ping-pong on the new table.

As "a little special something," the club had entertainers, song-fests, and special parties on Halloween, Christmas, and New Year's.

THE ALMA MATER

Slow

Neath the range of mighty mountains, Reared against the sky, Proudly stands our Alma Mater, as the years go

by. Forward ever be our watchword- conquer and prevail.

Hail to thee our Alma Mater, Walla Walla – hail!

N. Welch
